Operating Instructions

1. The standard dimensions of a volleyball field are 30' x 60'.
Pre-measured boundry rope is included.
2. Attach net to aluminum poles, then attach guy lines to poles. Holding the pole upright, extend the guy lines out to 45° (approximately 8' to 10' feet apart) and anchor with the steel ground stakes.
3. To tension the net, lean the base of the pole towards the inside center of the court, approx. 18". Pull down on the guy line tension ring or handle.
4. Stand the pole upright. This procedure provides maximum net tension.
5. Before returning net systems, remove all dirt, sand and debris.
6. This volleyball set should only be used under adult supervision.
